Dylan Thomas Print : especially when the October wind □ □ AVAILABLE NOW

This exhibition marked the 50th anniversary of Dylan Thomas' death. Twelve Wales-based Printmakers responded to Dylan Thomas' poem, 'especially when the October wind' - a poem with particular resonance to the Swansea landscape, the town of his birth and source of inspiration.

View the prints and find out more on our collectors item pages.

Our Touring Package includes a framed set of twelve prints | a boxed set for display purposes | beautifully designed catalogue for sale | illustrative material for wall display | Powerpoint presentation |

We can also arrange an Artist Talk and associated Workshops appropriate for your venue.
